

NO HARM TO THE HOME MARKETS

Opinion of Congressman Cooper on Proposed Concession to Cuba.

GIVES HIS REASON

The Reduction Will Promote Best Interests of Beet and Tobacco Growers.

AFFECTS NO INDUSTRY

Washington, D. C., April 17.—Representative Cooper of Wisconsin takes a view of the Cuban reciprocity bill different from that of the majority of the Wisconsin delegation. Although he has a considerable tobacco growing area in the western end of his district, he holds that the proposed 20 per cent. reduction on the imports from Cuba will not affect the market for American tobacco. Neither does he believe the admission of Cuban sugar at 20 per cent less than the regular tariff will cripple or in any important way effect the beet sugar industry.

Opinion Worthy of Note. Mr. Cooper's position is worthy of note, for he occupies a conspicuous place in the house, and as chairman of the insular affairs committee has given the subject of the trade relations of the United States and the islands careful study. He thinks that annexation will in time be demanded by the Cubans, and that to defeat the pending bill giving Cuban producers a 20 per cent. reduction on the tariff for importing their goods, into the United States, will tend to hasten and make more imperative the annexation movement.

Stops Claim for Annexation. "The Cubans have lost their European market," said Mr. Cooper yesterday, "as a result of the Spanish war, and we owe it to them to give them as good a show as we can without injuring our home industries. If we let in their goods at a reasonable reduction from the established tariffs they will probably be contented and prosperous. Should we, however, make them pay the regular tariffs on their goods shipped into the United States they will clamor for annexation. Now there is a powerful party in the United States which favors annexation and if the Cubans demand annexation they may get it. Then the sugar producers and tobacco growers of the United States will have to come into direct competition with the Cubans. Then the evil they now fear would be upon them. Give Them Their 20 Per Cent.

"I believe that the best interests of the beet and tobacco growers of the United States will be fostered by the proposed 20 per cent reduction for the Cubans, for it will affect no industry now established in our country, while annexation and free trade with Cuba, might seriously affect them. Give them their 20 per

WISCONSIN DEAL IN CALIFORNIA PROMISES TO NET THEM MILLIONS

Badger Capitalists Get Control of Over 18,000 Acres of Fine Redwood—Plan to Build New Railroads—Will Erect Big Sawmills.

Milwaukee, April 17.—A syndicate of Wisconsin capitalists has just completed a deal by which an 18,000 acre tract of redwood forest in Del Norte county, California, is transferred to it at a price between $750,000 and $1,000,000. The deal was consummated through N. C. Foster of Fairchild, who spent some time in the country negotiating the sale with Isaac Minor, its former owner. The syndicate includes Frank G. Bigelow, president of the First National bank of this city, but, while confirming the report, he declined last night to give the names of any of the other capitalists who are interested in the deal. It is said there are ten of them in all. The plan to be followed is to locate sawmills in the forest capable of handling the huge timber logs and also contemplates of necessity the construction of a railway into the heart of the district. It is estimated by Mr. Minor that the syndicate will realize $10,000,000 upon its investment. The land was formerly known as the Homecraft and Camp tracts and cent. reduction and we stave off annexation, make them pay the regular tariff, and we bring annexation directly before us. The pending bill is not an attack upon the protective system, as many seem to think, but is, I believe, a defense of it."

Brooks Discovers New Comet. Geneva, N. Y., April 17.—Dr. William R. Brooks, director of Smith observatory and professor of astronomy at Hobart college, announces the discovery of a new comet. The comet has a daily motion of about three degrees southeasterly and toward the sun. This is the twenty-third comet discovered by Dr. Brooks.

FATE OF SUBSIDY BILL IS DECIDED

It Cannot Under Any Possibility Pass Congress at This Session—Pass to Next Session.

Washington, D. C., April 17.—It has been decided at a conference of Republican leaders of both houses to shelve the ship subsidy bill recently passed by the senate. Two propositions looking to this end are under advisement; one is to allow the bill to die quietly in the committee on merchant marine and fisheries, where it now is, and the other is to report it back with a motion to proceed to its consideration in December next. The result of either plan will be the same as the subsidy bill will not be considered at this session, and that means practically that it will not be passed by the next congress, as the second session, which meets the first Monday in December next, will expire by operation of law the fourth day of March next, leaving but three months, including Sundays, Christmas holidays, and the numerous other days when congress will not be in session.

STALWARTS SCORED IN FIRST ROUND

The State University Club Endorses Spooner and the "Conservative" Element in Republican Party.

Madison, Wis., April 17.—Special.—The University Republican Club in a meeting held last night, sprung a surprise in the camp of the supporters of the present governor. The entire ticket of the stalwart faction was elected to the offices with an overwhelming majority over the half-breeds. Besides this the meeting adopted resolutions which outlined the administration of the club for the coming year. These resolutions were strongly stalwart. In them after mentioning the death of Pres. Wm. McKinley, the administration of John C. Spooner was warmly commended and he was urged to reconsider his idea of dropping out of the senatorial race. But the last clause of the resolutions is the one which outlines the sentiment of the republican voters of the university and it is this clause that has brought dismay into the ranks of the half breeds. This clause verbatim is:

"Be it further resolved that we affirm our allegiance to the conservative republican principles which have built so well for the republican party and for the welfare of the nation and state."

The majority given to the stalwart candidates was over two-thirds and represents fully the feeling of the students on the coming campaign. An election of officers of the club followed, resulting: President, Harry E. Edward of Lancaster; Secretary, Milo Muckelston of Waikesh; treasurer, W. A. Smith of Madison.

Tried to Kill the Mayor. Hudson, Wis., April 17.—Edward Huff, formerly employed on the ferry boat here, made an unsuccessful attempt upon the life of Mayor-elect Frank McGuire but none of the bullets hit their mark. After firing Huff made good his escape.

KNEADED HIS STOMACH WITH FISTS; WATER SPURTED OUT OF HIS MOUTH

Details of Torture Applied to a Filipino Leader to Make Him Confess—More Sensational Charges of Cruelty and Brutality.

Washington, D. C., April 17.—Edward Davys, ex-sergeant of the Twenty-sixth volunteers, testified this morning before the Senate Philippine committee as to the application of the water cure to the president of the town of Igarlis. He said the victim was kept under the tank five or ten minutes. When he swelled up from the water the men who were giving it to him kneaded his stomach with their fists, making the water spurt out of his mouth. He struggled terribly. After the administration of the water cure the president confessed that he was a captain of the insurgents, while professing to be friendly. He was not hurt apparently by the water cure. Capt. Glenn, Lieut. Conner and Surgeon Lion were present while the cure was being administered.

SAVAGE ISLANDERS FEAST ON ENEMIES

Cannibalism, Earthquakes, Tidal Waves and Plague Ravaging the South Sea Islands.

Victoria, B. C., April 17.—The steamer Moana, which reached port today from Sydney via the South sea ports brought details of tribal wars, cannibalism, earthquakes, tidal waves and plague and other horrors in the South seas. The steamer Manure had just returned to Sydney, from the New Hebrides, just prior to the departure of the Moana, and according to the report furnished by her purser, the steamer's company found on their arrival at Tanna that a big cannibalistic fete was being held by the natives.

The natives had secured a number of prisoners in a raid on the villages of their enemies and when the steamer reached port, some distance from the native village they were eating some of the unfortunates who had been captured or killed in the tribal engagement. Some of the prisoners were brought to the fire alive, and after they had seen some of their unfortunate fellow beings roasted for the feast they were slaughtered before the assembled company. During the feast one of the natives who had been buried alive and had been beneath the ground for twelve days was exhumed and cooked and eaten with the rest. The passengers and officers of the island steamer did not go to the scene of the cannibal feast which was still in progress when they left.

HER HEART FAILED BEFORE MINISTER

Wisconsin Woman Says She Does Not Love the Man She Traveled 200 Miles to Marry.

Chicago, April 17.—After traveling more than 200 miles to meet her intended husband, Miss Bessie Besaw's heart failed her as she confronted the minister yesterday and when she confessed that she did not love Sampson J. Broadway the Rev. W. E. Warner refused to make them man and wife. Bessie was a bashful girl from New London, Wis., 21 years old, and Broadway was from Garland Lake, Ind., and said he was 50 years old. The marriage license was shown and after a witness had been secured the four went in to parlor.

The color came and vanished in Bessie's rosy cheeks as she timidly followed the directions of the minister. Broadway anxiously awaited the tying of the knot while he nervously fingered the ring he had bought for her.

The bride-elect glanced furtively at the man whom she was about to marry and then appealingly toward the minister. Her lips quivered and her eyes filled with tears. Overcoming her emotion, she courageously stood erect and waited for the ceremony. Slowly the minister began. With each word uttered her heart seemed to sink deeper, and just as she was about to speak the one word which would seal her future she rebelled. Impulsively she declared she did not love him, and looked the clergyman bravely in the eye. There the ceremony stopped, and without asking any explanations, they quickly left.

After leaving the parish house they began to argue the matter, and Bessie insisted that if he was bent upon marrying her she wanted the ceremony performed in Wisconsin.

PALMA OUTLINES POLICY IN CUBA

General Plan Will Be Reciprocity with United States.

HIS FIRST MESSAGE

Will Use All Possible Methods to Unite the Cuban Political Factions.

MONEY U.S. STANDARD

Washington, April 17.—President-elect Tomas Estrada Palma of Cuba passed through here yesterday en route to Cuba from New York. He will visit a number of Cuban cities and towns and go to Havana about May 9. The president-elect is suffering from a cold and his health apparently is far from perfect. His first important act as the president of the new republic, he announced, will be the formation of a cabinet and the dispatch of a message to the Cuban congress. He already has settled upon several persons to whom he will tender portfolios. He added a heraldic herald herald herald admitted that he had practically decided upon Gonzalo de Quesada, who represented the Cubans here preceding the Spanish-American war, for Cuban minister to the United States. His first message to the Cuban congress will be submitted immediately after he assumes office. Its main recommendations will be: First, all possible measures calculated to unite the various political factions of Cuba; second, the development of the natural resources of the country, with reciprocal tariff relations with the United States; third, the maintenance of the most friendly relations with the United States government.

Mr. Palma said the United States dollar would continue to be the standard in Cuba, but that the currency and other questions were matters that required mature deliberation. He is hopeful of securing a substantial reduction of the tariff on sugar, tobacco and other Cuban products. The Cuban government would act entirely on a reciprocal basis in making reductions on United States products, and whatever action was taken at Washington would be followed to the same extent by the Havana government. He said Cuba would not establish such reciprocal commercial relations with any other government than that of the United States.

Accompanying the president-elect are Jose, his son; Gonzalo de Quesada, R. Narganas, M. Morales, R. Serra, M. Gonzales and Manuel Ros.
